

Emily Lopez, PTA

Hi I'm Emily! I grew up in the bay area and got my B.S. in Kinesiology at the University of San Francisco. Shortly after, I moved down to Southern California to pursue my PTA career.

I am a firm believer in all the benefits physical therapy provides, as it applies to even the simplest tasks throughout the day.

Things that keep me busy outside of work:

Camping/Backpacking, Pilates, Weightlifting, Running, and watching Million Dollar Listing LA. I have a yellow lab named Beau and occasionally visit family still up in the bay area. Looking forward to treating you!
